*Sing praises to the Lord,
who sits enthroned in Zion!
Tell among the peoples his deeds! Psalm 9:11*

Sing praises to the Lord!
As a little child, I heard the Bible stories of the great men and women of the Old Testament praising God for saving them from all sorts of dangers and blessing them beyond comprehension. You may recall some of these stories – Noah, Abraham, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, King David, Esther, and Ruth. As a student, I read more about these great men and women and tried to imagine what their lives were like, compared to mine. You know, how could they have done the things they did without the things I had? How did they function without things like telephones, newspapers, cars, or television? Then I went off to college and sang for four years in the Wartburg College Choir, an a capella choir that performed sacred music – singing praises to the Lord on a daily basis and performing all over the United States and Europe for four years.

Now that I am a wife, mother, and grandmother, the phrase “Sing praises to the Lord!” has a totally different meaning to me than it did all those years ago. I find myself praising God for all His marvelous works (beginning with Creation) and wondrous gifts to me (salvation and hope of eternal life) and the life He has given me (children and grandchildren) – all because He loves me.

According to my Bible, Psalm 9 is a Psalm of David; singing praise to God for the victories he's won in battle. I haven't fought any great battles – Jesus did all of that for me and gave me the prize of eternal life. For that I “Sing praises to the Lord!” And Jesus did not only do the fighting for me, He did it for the whole world.

Which leads me to the rest of verse 11 – “Tell among the peoples his deeds!” There were numerous accounts of God's deeds being told and retold throughout the world at the 38th Biennial Convention of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League in Mobile, Alabama, this past June. I wish I had an instant recall-type memory so I could recount the stories I heard while in Mobile, but I don't. I do remember and know that our missionaries are telling God's deeds throughout the world and millions are hearing and believing. What about you and me? We can tell of His deeds as we live and work with our friends, families, co-workers, and neighbors.

Praise God! God's Word, the Bible, tells us what he has done for us. Thankfully He didn't stop when the last verse of the Bible was written down.

Psalm 9:11 ends "Tell among the peoples his deeds!" We tell not only the deeds recorded in the Bible, but also the deeds that He does in our day-to-day lives and in the lives of millions who are coming to know Jesus all around the world. Praise God!

Counselors Corner

Psalm 9:11 reads "Sing praises to the Lord, who sits enthroned in Zion! Tell among the peoples His deeds!" Telling the deeds of the Lord is an important task of God's people. This telling is done as the Lord sits in "Zion," His church. Jesus sits as head of the hidden church, of all believers in Christ. He sits as head of the visible congregation that proclaims His Word in truth and purity and administers the Sacraments according to His Word.

This telling flows from His grace bestowed by Jesus' death for your sins. My favorite hymn is "I Will Sing my Makers Praises" (TLH 25, LW 439, and in LSB found in Lutheran Service Builder extras, and best sung to the tune of "Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus") explains wonderfully why we tell of His deeds. Consider the following two verses:

1. I will sing my Maker's praises
And in Him most joyful be,
For in all things I see traces
Of His tender love to me.
Nothing else than love could move Him
With such sweet and tender care
Evermore to raise and bear
All who try to serve and love Him.
All things else have but their day,
God's great love abides for aye.
2. All that for my soul is needful
He with loving care provides,
Nor of that is He unheeding
Which my body needs besides.
When my strength cannot avail me,
When my powers can do no more,

Doth my God His strength outpour;
In my need He doth not fail me.
All things else have but their day,
God's great love abides for aye.

May we tell as we find strength in Christ found in His Word and Sacraments bestowed upon us all in His church and the congregation we attend.

Marlene Ellen Bartlett

November 29, 1933 -
July 14, 2019

Marlene Ellen Bartlett, Past President of LWML Iowa District East, died Sunday, July 14 at the age of 85. She is survived by her husband, Robert, and three children and their families along with a sister. Marlene lived in Rockwell, Iowa (and recently at the IOOF Home, Mason City) and was an active member of Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Mason City.

Marlene was an active supporter of LWML serving LWML on all levels. She served as President of LWML Iowa District East from 1986-1990 and later served on the national level on the Christian Growth Committee. During this time, she was a gracious mentor to many.

One highlight of Marlene's time as President was the decision to change from holding one-day conventions to two-day conventions.

Marlene had a large collection of hats which she used to present inspirational programs for LWML groups and others. These programs, which also used Bartlett pearls as props, presented a powerful witness of her faith in Jesus as her Savior. Many fondly knew her as the "Hat Lady."

Marlene will be missed by many!

VP of Organizational Resources

Now that the LWML convention in Mobile is behind us, it is time to think about the LWML IED convention which will be held on June 12-13, 2020, in Cedar Rapids. There will be inspirational speakers, music, Bible studies, elections of new officers and voting on bylaw amendments. Please review the LWML IED bylaws and contact your Zone President with any suggested changes you think should be addressed. The Executive Committee offices up for election include VP of Organizational Resources, VP of Human Care, VP of Communications, and Treasurer. Please reach out to any of the current Vice Presidents for information on what the responsibilities include; it is a wonderful time to get to know more LWML IED Sisters in Christ.

Sing praises to the LORD, who sits enthroned in Zion! Tell among the peoples his deeds! Psalm 9:11

The author of our theme verse encourages us – to sing and to tell. The word ‘sing’ appears more than 200 times in the Bible; ‘tell’ almost 400 times (ESV translation). These simple words are turned into important actions as God’s people – a way to communicate with others as we share the Good News of God’s love through Christ Jesus.

First, our singing is done in praise to the Lord – it is a joyful noise unto Him – for all He has done for us. It is difficult to sing with a frown on your face, especially when you think about all the gifts and blessings we enjoy every day. Second, we are to tell others about those gifts and blessings – all the deeds that God has done!

At the LWML store (lwml.com) – click on the yellow “shop” button in the top right corner – there are many resources to help us “tell.” There are several new options on the site, including “A Missionary? Me?” Bible study

Psalm 91:11 “Sing Praises to the Lord who sits enthroned in Zion! Tell among the people his deeds!”

You don’t always need a large group of people to make a difference in the lives of others.

There are the quiet, small gestures that can mean so much. When my mother-in-law was in a nursing home I was there when a musician played hymns on the piano for everyone in the visitor’s center. There were toes tapping, heads bobbing and smiles all around. Some even did a “sing along.”

You can visit a nursing home, choose someone who doesn’t have many visitors and sing a hymn or two with him/her. (It really won’t matter if you can carry a tune or not.) Ask if they have a favorite hymn, then sing it. If you don’t know that hymn look it up and sing it the next time. It’s the visit of caring that will boost their spirits.

Suggest a Bible verse or two and read with them. Or ask if they have a favorite verse to read together. Close your visit with a prayer. And possibly you will say “I will be back again.”

This is called Human Care in Action by YOU!

“Voices raised to You we offer; Tune them, God, for songs of praise. Hearts and hands we bring in tribute. For Your gifts through all our days. Alleluia Alleluia! Triune God, to You we sing!” (795 LSB)

I had the privilege to attend the LWML convention in Mobile as a delegate from the Mt. Pleasant Zone. What an amazing opportunity to participate in the election of new national officers and selection of 2019 - 2021 biennium mission grants! Equally as exciting was learning from our LCMS missionaries and church workers about the amazing work God is doing here in the United States and around the world. His deeds are certainly being told among the peoples!

In Iowa East District, we have the opportunity to support the next generation of church workers through our LWML IED Student Aid Endowment Fund. Each fall, the annual 5% fund distribution is used to provide student aid for LCMS Iowa District East students attending LCMS colleges or universities pursuing careers in full-time church work. As of March 31, 2019, our Endowment Fund balance stood at $46,776.08. Obviously, the larger the balance, the larger the contribution we are able to make each year to support our undergrad college students. Funds are invested with and professionally managed by the LCMS Foundation. There are many ways you can help our Endowment Fund grow:

- Direct gifts of cash, stocks, bonds, real estate or personal property
- Bequest in a will
- Gift of a life insurance policy
- Remembrance giving in memory of friends and loved ones
- Allocation of Thrivent Choice® dollars designated to LWML IED

Mite offerings sent to IED may also be designated specifically for the Endowment Fund. Simply write "Endowment Fund" on the memo line of your check. Please consider the Endowment Fund for a special offering at your next Zone event or rally!

In closing, I am happy to share with you a current accounting of our IED 2018 – 2020 biennium allocations for His work both within the district and beyond our LWML Iowa East District borders. Thank you for your faithful mite gifts! Sing praises to the Lord, who sits enthroned in Zion! Tell among the peoples his deeds! Psalm 9:11

Charter Bus Report

Our trip to Mobile was GOOD – thanks be to GOD! We left Cedar Falls on Tuesday, June 18, at 7 a.m. in a very new fifty-six passenger bus (the larger size was a very pleasant surprise that turned out to be a blessing). Right on schedule, we had all 47 riders on board and headed south on Highway 218.

Our days started early as we were assigned to Charter Bus Group 1 and had to leave our hotel at 6:15 a.m. two mornings and 6:45 a.m. the last two.

On Sunday, inspired by all the happenings at the convention but very tired, we left Mobile at noon and our journey ended late afternoon Monday.

Our bus driver, Paul, a Christian man who prayed with us (while keeping his eyes on the road), sang with us and researched and found all of the restaurants and stops we needed to make. He was a true blessing.

Thanks to Lois Nord, Kay Berry, Nancy Maurer, Karen Boehme, and Helen Huedepohl for helping with devotions and prayers; to Kay Berry, Elizabeth Gehle, and Lauren Gangel for bringing movies; and to Alice Hoffmeier who brought her Melodica so we could sing with music. Thank you to Judith Fink for taking the errant bags left on the bus. They found their owners in short order!

We also thank Valley Lutheran School in Cedar Falls, Our Redeemer Lutheran Church in Iowa City, and Faith Lutheran Church in Mt. Pleasant for allowing us to park our cars in their lots, and for allowing us to use the churches as a rest stop. Thank You!

All conventions are wonderful in unique ways, and this one was no exception. Praise and thanks to God for this wonderful experience! To God Be the Glory!

Janice Johnston

Charter Bus Coordinator

Editor's note – I have never seen the bus driver give a present to a charter bus coordinator, but that is what happened here. Paul Gilchrist gave Jan a devotion book. It was well deserved.

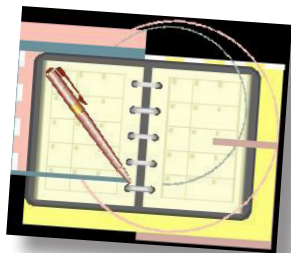

Faith Like a Mustard Seed

The first Sunday in October is traditionally set aside for the observation of LWML Sunday, but it may be celebrated at any time.

"Faith Like a Mustard Seed" is the theme for LWML Sunday 2019, based on Jesus' words in Luke 17:6 that faith as small as a mustard seed can move a mulberry tree. We may long for a greater and more heroic faith, but what about the faith we have right now? LWML Sunday 2019 celebrates the power of a daily walk with Jesus to transform lives and multiply disciples. Little faith or great, there are mulberry trees to be moved!

2019 LWML Sunday materials, authored by Rev. Dr. Dean Nadasdy, are now available. To ensure availability and delivery, all LWML Sunday orders should be placed before September 1, 2019.

Zone Rally News

Mt Pleasant Spring Rally.....

The Mt. Pleasant Zone Spring Rally was held at Our Savior, Muscatine, on Saturday, April 27. The theme was "Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path," from Psalm 119:105. Guest speakers were Rev. Max Phillips and Keri Smith of Lutheran Family Service. Rev. Jeffrey Pautz of Our Savior, Muscatine, led the Bible Study.

The Clinton Zone Spring Rally.....

The Clinton Zone Spring Rally was held April 27, 2019 at St. John Lutheran Church, Clinton. There were 48 persons in attendance. Bible Study was conducted by Pastor Daniel Pool on "Jael, Most Blessed of Women." Pastor Russell Helbig, Supervisory Chaplain of Federal Prisons, Thomson, Illinois, spoke concerning his mission to the inmates and the prison staff. He mentioned several projects funded by LWML mites. A business meeting and luncheon followed the presentation.
